November 2025

Newsletter

Dear {{voornaam}}{{firstname}}

Welcome to the third Minority Report project newsletter – marking 18 months of collaboration and progress!

Over the past period, our consortium delivered key outputs shaping the project's outreach strategy, business planning, and financial monitoring. In parallel, we actively engaged with peers, local communities, and climate resilience networks to bring our work closer to real-world application and policy relevance.

As we move into the next phase, we look forward to sharing further insights and results as our work continues to evolve!
